

Arkansas Reads One Book™

A Family Financial Literacy Project

We are proud to offer this opportunity in Arkansas...

Governor and First Lady
Asa & Susan Hutchinson

join in the excitement of Arkansas Reads One Book!

Read The World According to Humphrey in the fall, and then follow along as the Hutchinsons read the first chapter of The Lemonade War in the spring - all via an exclusive video cast - then each family in your community reads a chapter at home every night.

★ KICKOFF ★

Fall 2017 and Spring 2018

See back for sign-up details

A family favorite full of sweet life lessons

This year's books are
The World According to Humphrey
AND
The Lemonade War
(available in English and Spanish)

Financial literacy in a fantastic story

You'll receive books for every student as well as in-school activities, assembly ideas, teacher resources, staff copies and family engagement tools. Tens of thousands of families across the state will read together in this celebration of literacy.

ECONOMICS ARKANSAS
Education for Real Life

Send an email to sign up your district!
arkansasreads@readtothem.org

Read to Them™
Creating a Culture of Literacy in Every Home®

© 2017 Read to Them
All rights reserved.

FALL SPECIAL

Register early by October 31, 2017

Family Literacy with The World According to Humphrey
in the fall or winter...

and

Financial Literacy with The Lemonade War in the spring
all for just $8.95 per student

regular price $10.95

WINTER SPECIAL

Register by December 31, 2017

Share the same two exciting reading events as above
- all for just $9.95 per student

regular price $10.95

Just want The Lemonade War?

Register by December 31, 2017
just $4.95 per student

regular price $5.95

SPRING READING EVENT

Register by March 1, 2018

The Lemonade War only
$5.95 per student

Free School Posters and Student Bookmarks

ECONOMICS ARKANSAS
Education for Real Life

