

WHAT IS FAMILY LITERACY?

IT ALL STARTS WITH A GREAT STORY...

A family bonds over a book. A school celebrates that book at school. Put them together and you build stronger readers, stronger families, and stronger communities. Begin with a quality children's novel. Send copies home to every family in your school/district. Read it at home according to a common reading schedule. Celebrate the book at school with exploration activities. That's Family Literacy.

FAMILIES GET...

- A Book for Each Student
- Letter Home
- Program Instructions
- Reading Schedule
- 10 Tips for Reading Aloud
- How to Help Your Child Become a Strong Reader
- Community Sponsor Letter

SCHOOLS GET...

- Free Books for Faculty and Staff
- Daily Trivia Questions
- Assembly Ideas and Scripts
- Suggested Activities for Classrooms and Special Guests
- Classroom Reproducibles for Younger Students
- RTT Guidance and Support

A parent is a child's first and best teacher. Research demonstrates that reading together increases reading skills, academic success, self esteem, and mental health. You can reap all these benefits when you build Family Literacy.

Let families read at home.

Let students explore at school.

Build Family Literacy in your school community.

