

Arkansas Reads One Book™

A Family Financial Literacy Project

We are proud to offer this opportunity in Arkansas...

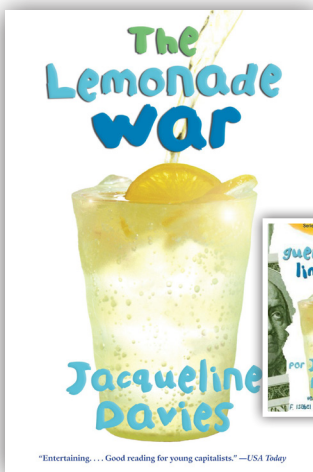

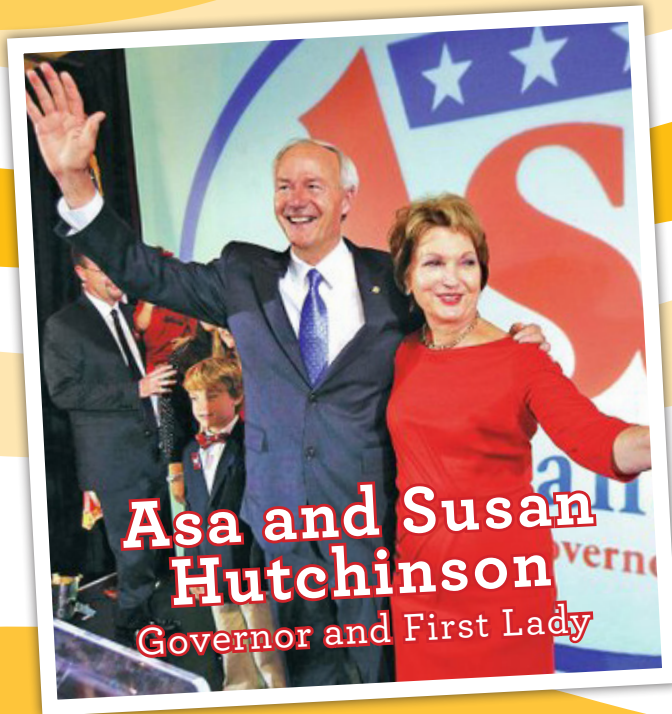

Governor and First Lady
Asa & Susan Hutchinson

join in the excitement of

Arkansas Reads One Book!

Join the Hutchinsons for an exclusive videocast kick off to read the first chapter of The Lemonade War. Then each family in your community reads a chapter at home every night over 3 weeks.

Finally, join author Jacqueline Davies for an exclusive wrap-up video!

Financial literacy in a fantastic story.

KICKOFF
 April 20, 2018 ***

See back for sign-up details

This year's book is
The Lemonade War
(available in English and Spanish)

You'll receive books for every student as well as free staff copies, in-school activities, assembly ideas, teacher resources, staff copies, and family, school, and community engagement tools. Tens of thousands of families across the state will read together in this celebration of literacy!

ECONOMICS
ARKANSAS
Education for Real Life

Questions? Contact Cathy Plageman, Program Director
cathy.plageman@readtothem.org (804) 334-5872
www.readtothem.org

Read to Them™
Creating a Culture of Literacy in Every Home®
© 2017 Read to Them
All rights reserved.

Sign Up Now!

Family and Financial Literacy with

The Lemonade War

All for just $4.95 per student
(Save $1.00 off our regular price)

All participating schools will automatically be entered into a raffle to win a host of prizes: signed books, posters and bookmarks, even a Skype chat or an in-person author visit!

Register by April 1, 2018

regular price $5.95

Place your order here:

<http://readtothem.org/programs/arkansas-reads-one-book/>

Free School Posters, Student Bookmarks, and Jacqueline Davies video!

ECONOMICS
ARKANSAS
Education for Real Life

Read to Them
Creating a Culture of Literacy in Every Home